

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Kensington

Miss Pearl Claudia Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford, of Burnt Mills, and Edwin Harrison Milstead, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Milstead, of Capitol View, were quietly married last Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. M. E. Clarke, in Washington. The Rev. A. E. Spielman, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, in Kensington, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of white mull and lace, with a wreath of lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of bride roses and ferns. The bride's only attendant was Miss Julia Marston, the bridegroom's sister, who wore white organdie and carried pink roses. Joseph I. Milstead served his brother as best man. The young couple left immediately after the ceremony for a short trip South. The bride's traveling gown was a tailored suit of black tulle, with hat to match.

Boys Out Camping.

Five of the Kensington boys are camping in rather a novel way. They are Burton Ruck, Lewis and Berkeley Wright, Willard and Paul Armstrong. Daytime is spent in true campers' style in the woods, the young campers cooking their provisions over wood fires. Their night camp, however, is within the town limits, where neither wild Indians nor wild animals prowl about, a good sized tent having been erected near Mr. Ruck's place. The boys are having a really good time.

Ladies' Auxiliary to Meet.

The Ladies' Auxiliary Societies of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church held their regular monthly meeting at Oak Knoll, the home of Mr. William Dulin, on Wednesday. Mrs. George W. Ashworth presided at the foreign missionary meeting, and Mrs. George Snyder gave a report of the quarterly meeting held in Washington, June 12. In the absence of Mrs. Gattrell, the president, Mrs. Sasser presided over the meeting of the Home Missionary Society. The topic for study was Porto Rico, and papers bearing upon that subject were read by Miss Nellie Harr, Mrs. Melbourne, Mrs. Smith, and Mrs. G. W. Ashworth. Officers for the following year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. A. E. Spielman; first vice president, Mrs. Estelle Gattrell; second vice president, Mrs. Sasser; third vice president, Mrs. G. W. Ashworth; treasurer, Mrs. Arthur Hendricks; secretary, Mrs. Horace Troth, Jr.; superintendent of light bearers, Mrs. George Snyder.

Hendricks Funeral.

Arthur Widenman Hendricks, eldest son of Captain and Mrs. Arthur Hendricks, of this place, died at his father's home on Sunday evening. Mr. Hendricks has been in Arizona and New Mexico during the past six years, where as a mining engineer he has been interested in some mining enterprises. He arrived in Kensington, June 20, expecting to enjoy a long visit with his home people, but was taken ill a few days later with typhoid fever. Mr. Hendricks died on the evening of the 14th.

Funeral services were held at the family residence on Baltimore street, Kensington, Tuesday morning, and were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Widenman, of Baltimore, assisted by the Rev. Dr. France, of Trinity M. E. Church, Washington, and the Rev. A. E. Spielman, of St. Paul's Church, Kensington. The pallbearers were Messrs. Wilbur W. Delano, A. W. Harrison, Lisle A. Lipcomb, Harry A. Bigley, Frank C. Bigley and Harry N. Treller. Many beautiful floral tributes were presented by sympathizing relatives and friends, and by the Masonic Lodge and citizens of Kensington. Interment took place at Glenwood at 4 o'clock.

Benefit Lawn Party.

A delightful lawn party and fancy sale was given by the Willard Hand Club at the residence of Dr. George H. Wright, Forest Glen, last Saturday afternoon for the benefit of the public playgrounds of Washington. Dr. Curtis, superintendent of the public playgrounds, was present, accompanied by Mrs. Curtis, who explained a number of new games to the children present. The Willard Hand Club is composed of a number of the young girls of Forest Glen, Woodside, and vicinity, and has for its officers Cynthia Van Vleet, president; Katharine Wright, secretary; and Mildred McNulty, treasurer. About $25 was realized by the entertainment on Sunday.

The boys belonging to the Woodside Baseball Club are giving an entertainment at the home of John Paul Jones, Woodside, Saturday evening for the benefit of the club.

Masons' Special Sermon.

The members of Kensington and vicinity will attend services at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church on next Sunday morning in a body, when a special sermon will be preached appropriate to the occasion. The public is invited to attend. Evening services at this church will continue during the summer at 8 p. m.

The Home Interest Club of Forest Glen met on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John McQueen. The "Moon" was read by Mrs. George Chandler, the principal feature being a most excellent paper on Russia. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Personal Notes of Interest.

Mrs. Harry Tamplet and her two children, of Louisville, Ky., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tamplet, on Montgomery avenue.

Mrs. Eugene Jones has spent several days in Adamstown, visiting her brother, Dr. Harry Conley.

Colonel and Mrs. John T. Brady and their daughter, Lillian, have returned from a month's vacation at Atlantic City.

The Sunday school of St. Paul's M. E. Church will give an excursion to Marshall Hall next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren MacLaine have returned from their wedding journey and are occupying their new home in Kensington.

George F. Cunningham and Miss Mary

NOW ON THEIR HONEYMOON

MR. AND MRS. E. H. MILSTEAD,
Young Kensington Couple Who Were Recently Married.

Earney, of Washington, and Miss Ruth Freeman, of Schenectady, New York, were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Cunningham, on Warner street.

Miss Elizabeth Cushman is ill with tonsillitis.

H. C. Shepherd and wife were the guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd, on Connecticut avenue.

Mrs. Frank Potts and her two sons, Philip and Hartley, are visiting friends in Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Kate E. Sweeney, of Forest Glen, is the guest of her son, Albert J. Sweeney, who has been in California for several years, being employed by the Washington railroad in extending their line through California and the West coast.

Mrs. Sweeney and her son are spending a few days at their former home, Galitzin, Pa., as guests of Mrs. Sweeney's brother, William Hall.

Miss Emma Litzinger, of Chicago, Pa., is visiting Father Rosensteel, of Forest Glen.

A house known as the "Halstead House," on Washington street, was sold recently to Harry M. Paine, of the Government Printing Office.

Miss Juanita Kaufman has gone to Long Island, where she will spend a month at Far Rockaway and Avenue.

Miss Clara Harrison is one of a house party at Lillian, Northumberland county, Va., given by Miss Lottie Hinton, of that place.

Miss Hinton was a graduate of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. James H. School, of Baltimore, Md., and is entertaining a party of her fellow-graduates at her Virginia home. Miss Harrison will travel through Southern Virginia before her return.

Miss Susie Adams, of Baltimore, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. William D. Thomas, on Connecticut avenue, has returned to her home.

Mrs. W. D. Little, of Forest Glen, gave a picnic luncheon on Monday in honor of Mrs. James T. Marshall, of Chicago.

The day was pleasantly spent. Dr. and Mrs. George Wright, of Forest Glen, have had as their guests during the past week Mrs. Wright's father and sister, Judge C. B. Waite, and Dr. Lucy Waite, of Chicago. Dr. Waite is returning home from Europe, where she has been attending the International Medical Congress, which convened in Lisbon, Portugal, in April. Dr. Waite was one of the few women physicians who were asked to deliver papers before the congress. She is at the head of the Mary Thompson College for Women and Children in Chicago.

Mrs. Noel McQueen, of Capitol View, received news on Tuesday of the sudden death in Montreal, Canada, of her sister, Mrs. Anna Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Cook entertained at dinner last Sunday, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. Friedman, of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. James B. Cook, of Washington, and Miss Matilda Wurdeman, also of Washington.

Miss Irma Sasser is spending a couple of weeks at Atlantic City with a large party of friends. Mrs. Floyd, of Gordonsville, Va., is chaperoning the party.

Miss Mary Cushman has returned from Massachusetts and is spending a few days with her brother in Washington.

The annual tournament and festival given at Forest Glen under the auspices and for the benefit of St. John's Church, of that place, will take place this year August 7.

Elizabeth and Merrill Paul, the little children of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Paul, are quite ill with measles.

E. T. Hardisty, of the candle stand, will take charge of the candle stand, house for several days by illness.

Brookland

The arrangements for St. Anthony's lawn fete, to be held the week of July 30, are progressing satisfactorily. The Rev. A. M. Mark, who is in charge of the affair, says the various committees are putting forth their best efforts to make the fete a success. The following ladies are in charge of the different booths: Mrs. N. Crook, choir booth; Mrs. J. B. Clark, candy booth; Mrs. H. W. Woodward, ice cream booth; Mrs. E. N. Dowling, lemonade booth; Miss N. Smith, fish pond; "Down the Ricker," Miss L. Jullien; flower booth, Miss Mary Woodward; St. Anthony's Club will take charge of the candle stand.

Committees of gentlemen will take care of various other attractions.

Plan Camp at St. George's Island.

Many young men of Brookland expect to leave for St. George's Island soon. Edward Marcan and Arthur Carpenter will make the journey in a canoe, taking with them a camp outfit. The other members of the party, who will go by boat, are as follows: Edward Carpenter, Joe Noel, Richard Daniels, Stanley Dyer, Fred Tansill, Ralph Simmons, and Harry Pike.

Episcopal Sunday School Picnic.

The members of the Sunday school of the Episcopal church, accompanied by their relatives and friends, spent a very pleasant day Tuesday at Chesapeake Beach.

Visiting Pastor at Baptist Church.

The Rev. William Wyeth, of Rockville Center, Long Island, New York, delivered an excellent sermon last Sunday at the Baptist church. He will also preach at the services today.

Louis Carmick, of Twelfth and Newton streets, has gone to Connecticut, where he will remain during the summer.

Miss Katherine Washington, of Thirteenth and Lawrence streets, has returned from Charlottesville, Va.

The members of the "Phunny Phellows' Club" enjoyed a trip last Saturday and Sunday to Colonial Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Springstead, of Irving street, left last Monday for St. Joseph, Mo., for a month's visit.

Miss Minnie Greenleaf, of 111 Monroe street, left last Tuesday for an indefinite visit to Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon, of Twelfth and Hamilton streets, left last Saturday for a few days at Atlantic City. Later in the month Mrs. Weldon will go to Illinois, where she will be joined by Mr. Weldon.

This fall Mr. Weldon expects to enter the practice of law as a member of a leading Chicago firm.

Miss Mary Dugan, of Twelfth and Philadelphia streets, has returned from a visit to her relatives in Hagerstown, Md.

Mrs. Laura A. King and family are now occupying their new home on Tenth and Monroe streets.

Mrs. Dora Lynch, who has been spending several months with her brother-in-law, C. G. Lynch, of Newton street, has returned to her home near Scottsville, Va.

R. D. Bryant, of New Haven, Conn., has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Pratten, of Irving street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Nash with their son are at Shellfield, shore resort of L. C. Handy, near Colonial Beach, Va.

Miss Margaret Graney sailed last Wednesday for Ireland, where she will probably remain with her father.

Mrs. Bessie Mitchell, of New York, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. H. W. Woodward, of Twelfth and Monroe streets, has returned to her home.

Misses Mary Lippett and Esther Musias, of Virginia, are the guests of Miss Katherine Washington, of Thirteenth and Lawrence streets.

Mrs. C. E. Rutherford, of 1404 Newton street, accompanied by her little daughter, Laura, has returned from a visit to her mother in Frederick, Md.

Mrs. Dugan, mother of Mr. Dugan, of Twelfth and Philadelphia streets, has returned to her home in Hagerstown, Md., on a short visit to her son.

Miss Emily Brooks has returned after a visit to relatives in Gettysburg, Pa.

Frank McHugh, of Thirteenth and Lawrence streets, has returned from Colonial Beach.

Mrs. Holmes, of Tenth and Irving streets, accompanied by her two sons, Donald and Clay, have returned from New York.

The members of the Phunny Phellows' Club will give an excursion to Marshall Hall on the 26th of this month.

Master Everett Phillips, of Queen's Chapel road, entertained last Tuesday night many of his little Brookland friends. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

Louis H. Crook, one of the three Brookland boys who left a few weeks ago for Philadelphia, visited his home on Sunday last. The boys are doing nicely, and are enjoying themselves.

Lewis A. MacMahon is at Atlantic City for a two weeks' stay.

Miss Koones, of Twelfth street, is accompanying Attorney General Moody on his summer vacation. Mrs. Koones has gone to Richmond.

Eugene Van Dusen and family are at Croom Station, Md., for a brief visit.

Charles Tansill has returned from Ocean View.

Misses Violet Horner and Ruby Schuler, of Twelfth and Kearney streets, left Friday for Atlantic City.

Mrs. Werber and son, of Baltimore, are visiting Mrs. Jaeger, of Ninth and Lawrence streets.

Mr. and Mrs. McHugh, of Thirteenth and Lawrence streets, have returned from Atlantic City.

Miss Rhonda, of Cincinnati, is visiting her sister, Mrs. McHugh.

The members of the Eastern Star held a meeting Wednesday evening in the town hall.

Miss Olive Wakefield of Seventh street, has left for Blue Plains, Va.

Admiral Stanley Dyer is visiting Ralph Moister, of Ninth and Lawrence streets.

Miss Nora Moriarty, of Washington, is visiting Mrs. Dillie, of Irving street.

SCRAPS.

Sir Gilbert Parker, the novelist M. P., does most of his writing nowadays while standing up.

Our million immigrants a year are bringing them $25,000,000 a year, besides their labor.

Mrs. Louise N. Bullard has given the Harvard medical school $2,000 to establish a chair of neurophysiology.

Dr. Francis P. Kinnicut, of New York, has been elected president of the Association of American Physicians.

A homing pigeon which was sent to the Isle of Man two years and four months ago, returned to its home city in Blackburn, England, recently.

Thread made from the spider's web is lighter and stronger than that which comes from the silkworm. In France there is a factory used only for the manufacture of spider thread.

Mrs. William McKinley continues her daily drives to the tomb of her martyred husband and always carries flowers with her. She is constantly attended by nurses and few people ever see her.

It has been suggested that African and Asiatic elephants be imported into South and Central America, in the vast forests of which they would multiply and provide a future source of ivory.

Hyattsville

The historic Calvert Mansion was the scene of a reception and dance given on Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Steinmeyer in honor of their guest, Miss J. Harriet McClellan, of Muncie, Ind. About one hundred and fifty people were present, including the ladies of the Riverdale Citizens' Association, of which Mrs. Steinmeyer is president. Miss McClellan is a popular high school teacher of Indiana. She has taken several extended trips at the expense of the newspapers of her State as the result of her victory in popularity contests. Those present at the dance from a distance were Miss Davis, Pocahontas county, W. Va.; Miss Rogers, of Tennessee; J. B. Husselman, of London; Mrs. Hattie Coulton, of Virginia; Dr. Isaman and Mr. Keppler, of Washington.

A number of pleasing musical numbers were rendered. Among those who contributed to the program were Mrs. Burhus and son, in a violin solo and obligato; Miss Small, whistling selections, and Scotch ballads; Messrs. Swartz, Gattrel, Hughes, and Cooke, of Washington, constituted a male quartet; Miss Hincley, instrumental selections. Refreshments were served during the intermission, after which the guests danced until a late hour.

Warren Post, G. A. R.

The T. K. Warren Post, G. A. R., met at the home of W. A. Bartlett, Brentwood, on last Thursday evening. Some of those present were commander Wallace A. Brown, of Washington; Major and Mrs. Bowen, of Washington; Major and Miss Alice Tierney, of Hyattsville; Mr. and Mrs. James McFarland, of Hyattsville; Miss Fannie Edwards, of Brentwood; Mr. and Mrs. William Post, of Brookland, and William Gustafson.

Riverdale Notes.

Mrs. Ella M. Queen Nally has been appointed to fill the vacancy in the principalship of the Riverdale school caused by the resignation of Mrs. P. L. McGee. Mrs. Nally comes highly recommended. She is a graduate of the State Normal School at Baltimore and formerly had charge of the school at Accokuk, this county.

The Riverside Council of the Riverdale Presbyterian Sunday school held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Harry Welsh on Tuesday, July 10.

David A. Reed, superintendent of the Sunday school, presided. After the regular business a very interesting paper was read by W. A. Rutherford on "How to Increase the Attendance of the Sunday School." The committee of arrangements for rally day exercises was appointed, with F. A. Preston, chairman.

After adjournment, refreshments were served.

The newly appointed trustees of the Riverdale school have held several meetings and plans are now under way which, if consummated, will greatly improve the condition of the school.

Subscription lists have been opened for the purpose of raising funds for the installation of a bell in the school belfry, and in order that all may have an opportunity to subscribe, the amount of contribution has been limited to 25c.

The Riverdale Park Company's office will be ready for occupancy on the 26th. The Riverside Postoffice will be moved into the new building on that date.

Young People's Society.

The Young People's Society of the Presbyterian Church held a social and business meeting at the home of Miss Lucile Brooks, Ravenwood avenue, on Tuesday evening. Arrangements for a lawn fete for August 3 on the lawn of the Presbyterian Church were completed and plans for a picnic to Cabin John Bridge were discussed. After the business session refreshments were served by Miss Brooks. A special meeting was called for July 30 at the home of Miss Viola Britt.

Surprise Party for Mrs. Lyon.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist Church gave a surprise party to Mrs. H. A. Lyons on Spencer street Tuesday evening. The occasion was the approaching departure of Mr. and Mrs. Lyons for Manhattan, Kan., where Mr. Lyons will edit the Nationalist, a weekly of that place. Mrs. Lyons was the recipient of a handsome set of table linen, presented in behalf of the society by Mrs. C. E. Vrooman. The presentation was accompanied by a brief resume of Mrs. Lyons' career as a church worker including her three years' presidency of the Aid Society. Later in the evening refreshments were served.

Democrats to Elect Officers.

The Bladensburg Democratic Club held a meeting on Saturday evening in the grove near Bladensburg bridge. The object of the meeting was to set a date for the election of new officers. This action was made necessary by the re-division of the Hyattsville and Bladensburg election districts. Three of the officers—President Casey, Vice President Alexander Hill, and Secretary Brooke Hunter—are made ineligible for membership in the club by reason of their residence in the newly constituted Hyattsville district. President Casey in a farewell speech expressed his regret at leaving the club. Mr. Casey has been president of the club for five years and was the Democratic candidate for the Legislature last fall. The Pan Electric House, Bladensburg, was chosen as the place for the election of officers, which will occur on July 15 at 8 p. m.

Calvert Mansion Lawn Fete.

The committee on arrangements for the reception and lawn fete to be given at Calvert mansion on Tuesday, July 17, have secured both a male and female quartet for the occasion and Prof. W. D. Hincley has charge of the program.

Personal Mention.

The Rev. C. H. Wagner, pastor of the local Memorial M. E. Church, left on Tuesday for a month's stay at Mountain Lake Park, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Van Doren are visiting friends in Oakland, Md.

A. S. Meacham and family of Thirteenth street, Mt. Rainier, have moved to Washington.

Mrs. H. E. Davis, of Littlefield avenue,

will spend two weeks with her mother at Fredonia, N. Y.

Edward A. Fallu has been spending a week at Chase City, Va.

Albert Lash, of Washington, and Miss Reefe were quietly married at Baltimore last week by the Rev. J. Fred Baggs. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's father.

Harry Lewis and sister have returned from a two weeks' stay in Culpeper county, Va.

Frank and Dwight Galt, Morgan Harvey and Francis Quisenberry are camping at Colonial Beach.

W. H. Morse, of Hagerstown, was in Hyattsville last week.

William Kearney and sister left last week for a trip to New York.

Mrs. John Darlington, recently of this place, announces that the marriage of her daughter, Florence, to William G. Mangum will take place Wednesday evening, July 15.

The Rev. J. J. Reive, of Washington, will conduct the services at the Hyattsville Methodist Church, South, this morning in the absence of the pastor.

Miss Mamie Breddon, of Richmond, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Kennedy.

Miss Josephine and Miss Alice Baker will leave this week for a month's stay at Stony Man, Va.

Mrs. Harry W. Shepherd returned on Tuesday of last week from a trip to Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. George M. McFarland and children are at Springfield, W. Va.

James Ford who has been absent for the past month on a business trip to Kentucky, returned last week.

Mrs. Mary J. Foulson, of Point Pleasant, Va., and Miss Ada Johnson, of Washington, are visiting Mrs. E. A. Wall, at Seat Pleasant, this county.

Miss Helen Burnside leaves tomorrow for a visit to Miss Susie Ford, Cecil county.

Allen Griffith is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Reverdy Scasser this month.

Miss Ruth Burnside is visiting the family of Mr. Waters, St. Mary's county.

Dr. and Mrs. Sansbury are at Atlantic City on a two weeks' vacation.

Miss Maude Green is spending the summer with her aunt, Mrs. F. S. Carmody.

Miss Goldie Bowen has returned to her home in Baltimore after a two weeks' stay with the family of Timothy Bowen.

John T. Riebel is in Houston, Va., on a business trip. Mr. Riebel will be away during July.

Mrs. Charles E. Steinmeyer gave a luncheon at her home on Friday evening in honor of Miss Davis, of Elkins, W. Va.

Miss Edna Tippet, one of the teachers at the local school this year, has returned to her home at Marlboro after a visit to Miss E. Enos Ray, of Chillum.

Rev. Henry D. Gordon, a prominent Washington lawyer, who has recently been licensed to preach, occupied the pulpit at the local Methodist church on Sunday morning. Mr. Gordon will continue to preach at the Memorial M. E. Church during the absence of Rev. Wagner, the pastor.

Miss Ada Weir, who has been visiting the family of J. S. McGee, at Riverdale, was taken to the George Washington Hospital last week, where she will be in the same room with her hostess, Miss Lois McGee, who only a few days ago underwent an operation for appendicitis. Miss McGee's condition is much improved and she will probably return to her Riverdale home in about three weeks.

Mrs. Myrtle Kemp and son, of Baltimore, are visiting Mrs. M. S. Coward, of Riverdale.

Miss Ida Reefe, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss C. M. Gelpin.

William Dayton, who has been stationed in the Philippines for three years in the employ of the paymaster's department, U. S. N., is at his home in Bryn Mawr, on a leave of absence. Mr. Dayton will visit Lower Prince George county, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Welsh, Johnson avenue.

Mrs. Claude Warren, Miss Marie Blundon and Ralph Warren were at Colonial Beach last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Watty, from Washington, have moved into their new residence, at the corner of Jefferson and Arthur street.

Mrs. J. H. Sanack's, of Havre-de-Grace, was in town last week to her daughter, Mrs. S. O. McCubbin, of Madison avenue.

Edith Frost, of Melrose avenue, left last week for a vacation trip to Atlantic City.

Capt. Wallace A. Bartlett, of Blandford, Mass., and Inez Jones, of Longview, will leave this week for a month's stay in Atlantic City.

William Bennett, of Pittsburgh, is at the home of his brother, Dr. R. E. Bennett, in Riverdale, under medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bartlett will leave about August 1 for a trip to New York State. Captain Bartlett will also visit Minnaboda for the past two months.

Mrs. Hughes left on Wednesday for a visit to her home, near St. Alban's, Va.

The lawyers of this county attending the convention of the Maryland Bar Association at Ocean City this week were W. Hampton Magruder, James C. Rogers, Fillmore Beall, Robert W. Wells, C. A. M. Wells, and Judge G. C. Merriek, of Upper Marlboro.

Miss Katherine Stalling, of Little Falls, N. Y., who has been with Mrs. R. E. Bennett for the past two months, returned to her home on Monday.

GUEST AT CALVERT MANSION

MISS J. HARRIET MCCLELLAN, of Muncie, Ind.

will spend two weeks with her mother at Fredonia, N. Y.